Jason Glaze, a pro se state prisoner, has brought a habeas petition under 28 U.S.C. § 2254. The Court granted respondent's motion to dismiss finding that two of the three claims were unexhausted. Glaze was given a choice to proceed with the one exhausted claim or seek to overcome the procedural default and file a stay to exhaust the other claims. Glaze has chosen to proceed with the one claim that there was insufficient evidence to support his conviction for assault with a deadly weapon and dismiss the other claims. Docket No. 21. Therefore, respondent shall file an answer no later than sixty days from the date of this Order. The parties shall follow all other instructions set forth in the Order to Show Cause. Docket No. 10. The two unexhausted claims are dismissed from this action and petitioner's motion to continue on the one claim (Docket No. 22) is GRANTED.
